Hello Mariyam Hiba, a very interesting poser. To tell you frankly, situation is quite funny and confusing. Almost every state is trying to have its own policy. It's therefore quite difficult to answer your query. In some states alongwith physical classes, colleges have been mandated to have online version as well and students attending either would be considered as present. I would like to advise you to approach your college or dte of education of your state to know detailed guidelines and information about compulsion of attending classes. Best w

If you do not go to the end, why to start?

Minimum 50% marks is a must for BBA. Although, since you are near by, it can be relaxed if your SSC scores are good and that shall depend on college admission committee. Thank you.
