

Solutions: EASY Test

Q 1:

Solution: (B) Only B statement captures the main idea given in the paragraph without changing the facts. D captures the idea but in the end it alters the given fact. A and C are far-fetched as per the given paragraph.

Q 2:

Solution: (A) Option A captures the key idea of the paragraph i.e. the advancement and process improvement in dairy industry. B is irrelevant and alters the fact. C deviates from the key idea given in the para. D focuses mainly on automation.

Q 3:

Solution: (C) The C statement uses all the important key ideas mentioned in the paragraph. It rightfully describes the impact of the treaty on the Ottoman Empire. The A statement says the Ottoman empire dictated peace which is incorrect. D statement is incorrect. B is close but it misrepresents the information.

Q 4:

Solution: (B) 2 introduces the topic of silk. 3 defines a cause, and 4 provides a reason. 1 further elaborates both the 3 and 4 sentences. The logical sequence will be 2341.

Q 5:

Solution: (D) The use of the ordinals 'first' and 'second' confirms the link between 2 and 3. Hence, option A and C can never be correct. In option B, 2 comes before 3 which is also not possible. So, the correct sequence has to be 1324.

Q 6:

Solution: (B) 2 introduces the topic of air pollution. The keyword 'standards' creates a link between 3 and 1. Only, option C uses the link 231. Hence, the logical sequence is 2341.

Q 7:

Solution: (C) The sentences like 1, 2 and 4 are mainly associated with potential of water and memory of water. Only 3rd sentence talks about wastewater which is a different topic altogether. Hence, option 3 will be correct.

Q 8:

Solution: (A) The first sentence talks about proper medication. The other three are mainly associated with health technology and the author's view on that. Hence, 1 is the odd one out here.

Q 9:

Solution: (B) The preceding line before blank (2) mentions that the author went blank when the new pope was presented. And the following line after the same blank uses the word 'included'. It's clear that this word is used for the list being mentioned in the given sentence.

Q 10:

Solution: (D) The preceding lines before the 4th blank say that there was no clear outlet for the war. The next line should give the reason for that. The given sentence fits meaningfully in the 4th blank.

Q 11:

Solution: (D) After reading the last few lines, it can be assumed that the bird was recovering from some injury. That means the ultimate conclusion should be that after that injury, it will be able to fly properly. Hence, the given sentence will come towards the end.

Q 12:

Solution: (D) Option D captures the focus of the passage. The passage explains the significance of mythology in various religions of India.

Q 13:

Solution: (B) B is correct as “good winning over evil” is central to Indian mythology. Also provides the essence of living.

Q 14:

Solution: (B) Option B is correct as it describes the right reason behind animation flicks on characters from mythology i.e. making the new generation as well as elders aware of Indian mythology.

Q 15:

Solution: (B) Option B is correct because it talks about the essence of the passage. It describes the significance of mythology in Indian religion and in everyday life as well.

Q 16:

Solution: (A) The given fact can be traced towards the end of the passage. It is clearly mentioned that it is considered aggressive.

Q 17:

Solution: (C) A and B are too broad. The passage focuses specifically on C from the 2nd paragraph onwards.

Q 18:

Solution: (D) Option D is correct because there is a lot of versatility as a result of variety of influences from day-to-day life to European/ oriental styles to folk culture.

Q 19:

Solution: (D) It is not true because Indian art is well known and appreciated abroad. It has a good market off shore and fetches even better prices.

Q 20:

Solution: (A) The given fact can be traced in the second paragraph of the passage.