

M.Sc. (PHN) Programme Curriculum

- Introduction to Public Health Nutrition
- Basic Epidemiology and Nutritional Epidemiology
- Social and Behavioural Sciences in Nutritional Health
- Nutritional Status Assessment in individuals and populations
- Principles of Health Management
- Basics of Biostatistics
- Human Nutrition, Dietetics & Nutrients
- Public Health Nutrition Cycle; and Maternal, Child and Adolescent Nutrition
- Public Health Nutrition Cycle: Adult nutrition and nutrition in special conditions and diseases
- Nutrition Research Methodology
- Nutritional Health Communication & Promotion
- Food and Nutrition Security, Food Systems and Food Environment
- Advance Biostatistics
- Public Health Nutrition and Food Policy
- Planning in Public Health Nutrition: Concepts and Principles
- Basic Principles and concepts of Monitoring and Evaluation of Public Health Nutrition Programs
- Data Visualization & Data Analytics
- Professional Development Needs and Strategies in Public Health Nutrition
- Dietetics and Clinical Human Nutrition
- Monitoring and Evaluation of PHN Programs