Note : First 15 minutes are allotted for the candidates to read the question paper.

Instructions :

- i) This question paper is divided into four Sections — A, B, C and D.
- ii) All questions from all the Sections are compulsory.
- iii) Marks are indicated against each question.

SECTION - A

( Reading )

✓ Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow :

A stout lady was walking with her basket down the middle of a street in Petrograd to the great confusion to the traffic and with no small peril to herself. It was pointed out to her that the pavement was the place for foot passengers, but she replied, "I'm going to walk where I like. We have got liberty now." It did not occur to the dear old lady that if liberty entitled the foot-passenger to walk down the middle of the road, it also entitled the cab driver to drive on the pavement, and that the end of such liberty would be universal chaos. Everybody would be getting in everybody else's way and nobody would get anywhere. Individual liberty would have become social anarchy.

- a) Why did the old lady not walk on the pavement?
- b) What was her interpretation of liberty?
- c) Why do you think that she was wrong about individual liberty?
- d) What would be the result of this individual liberty?
- e)
  - i) Write the opposite for 'liberty'.
