

NLSAT 3-Year LLB Syllabus 2026

The NLSAT exam will comprise of single question paper comprising two parts – Parts A and B. It is mandatory to attempt both parts of the question paper. The exam will be for a duration of 150 minutes (2 hours 30 minutes).

NLSAT 3-Year LLB Syllabus: Part A

In the NLSAT LLB syllabus for the Part A, candidates will find 75 Multiple-Choice Questions of 1 mark each. Questions on the following topics can be seen in the exam:

1. Reading Comprehension
2. General Awareness
3. Critical Reasoning

NLSAT 3-Year LLB Syllabus: Part B

In the Part B of the NLSAT 3-Year LLB exam, candidates will have to answer the subjective questions of 75 marks. Descriptive questions on Legal Aptitude/Reasoning, and Analytical Ability will be seen in the question paper. Find out the type of questions to expect in each section:

1. Legal Aptitude/Reasoning: Question will be problem-based. Provide short answers in response to such questions. Prior knowledge of the law is not expected to answer these questions
2. Analytical Ability: Essay topics will be asked in this section to evaluate the knowledge of the issue, the ability provide written arguments on it. The answers will be marked as per the ability of the aspirant to write a well-structured essay.