

BITSAT 2026
Expected Cutoff
Campus-wise and
Branch-wise Scores

Overview and Campus-wise B.E. Projections

Admission to the Birla Institute of Technology and Science (BITS) campuses is highly competitive. Based on current trends for 2026, the cutoffs are expected to remain high, particularly for the Pilani campus.

Key Factors Affecting This Year's Cutoff:

- Difficulty Level: Variations in Session 1 vs. Session 2 difficulty.
- Applicant Volume: A higher number of aspirants typically pushes the "Safe Score" higher.
- New Seats: Introduction of branches like "Mathematics and Computing" affects the distribution of top-tier students.

Expected Cutoff Ranges (Branch-wise)

BITSAT 2026 Safe Scores for Top Branches

If you are aiming for a guaranteed seat in the first few rounds of BITSAT counseling, aim for these "Safe Scores":

- BITS Pilani CSE: 340+
- BITS Goa CSE: 320+
- BITS Hyderabad CSE: 315+
- Electronics (Any Campus): 300+

There are no "qualifying marks" for BITSAT. Admission is strictly merit-based. If your score is above 250, you have a very strong chance at popular branches in Goa or Hyderabad.
