

PU LLB Cutoff Marks 2026

Minimum Qualifying Criteria, Participating Colleges & Tie-Breaking Method

1. Minimum Qualifying Criteria

Since there are limited seats for admission to the three-year LLB course offered at PU colleges, Panjab University has set a minimum qualifying criteria for the PU LLB entrance exam so that candidates can be shortlisted for final admission. To secure a rank in the merit list, candidates must meet the cut-off marks given below:

Category	Passing Criteria	Cut-off Marks
General / OBC	20% marks out of total scores in PU LLB entrance exam	20 marks out of 100
SC / ST / PWD	15% marks out of total scores in PU LLB entrance exam	15 marks out of 100

The final merit list for the PU LLB entrance exam is prepared by the participating law colleges, based on the following weightage:

Component	Weightage
PU LLB Entrance Exam	50%
Qualifying Exam	50%
Total Weightage	100%

2. Participating Colleges (PU LLB)

The LLB entrance exam was conducted by Panjab University for admission to three-year LLB courses offered at the following colleges:

- Department of Laws, Panjab University, Chandigarh
- Panjab University Regional Centre, Muktsar
- UIL, Panjab University Regional Centre, Ludhiana
- University Institute of Legal Studies, Swami Sarvanand Giri, PU Regional Centre, Bajwara, Hoshiarpur

3. Tie-Breaking Method

If two or more candidates secure the same marks/rank in the entrance exam conducted for PU LLB admissions, the tie in such a scenario is resolved as per the criteria below, applied in order:

- 1 The candidate securing a higher percentage of marks in the qualifying examination (i.e., the Bachelor's degree) is ranked higher in order of merit.
- 2 If the tie still remains, the candidate who has secured a higher percentage of marks in the immediate lower examination shall rank higher in order of merit.
- 3 If the tie still remains, the candidate who is older in age is ranked higher in order of merit.
