

BMAT Syllabus

BMAT Syllabus: English Language and Comprehension

In this section of BMAT exam, candidates are tested on their English language and comprehension skills. The questions are asked on the basis of the following:

English Grammar	Vocabulary
Idioms	Fill in the blanks
Antonym-Synonym	Odd sentence
Word meaning	Reading comprehension

BMAT Syllabus: Numerical Ability

Numerical Ability section of BMAT consists of all Maths topics such as Algebra, Arithmetic, Geometry and Mensuration. Check the table below for the topics that you need to cover to score well in this section:

Number Systems	Algebra
Coordinate Geometry	Geometry
Trigonometry	Mensuration
Statistics	Probability
Median	Instalments and Payments
Partnership	Clocks, Work and Time
Pipe and Cisterns	Time, Speed, Distance
Cubes and Cones	Work and Time

BMAT Syllabus: Logical Reasoning

The BMAT Logical Reasoning section will require you to be well versed with all types of verbal, abstract, critical and logical reasoning questions/puzzles based on the following:

Tables	Bars
Pie-Charts	Line Graphs
Blood Relations	Puzzles
Arrangements	Data Structures
Coding-Decoding	Clocks and Calendars

BMAT Syllabus: Management Skills

The fourth section of BMAT is Management Skills, which is essentially about Business and Economy. You need to read and learn the latest happenings in the field along with general aptitude.